Updating Our PDS

There are circumstances in which We may need to update this PDS. These could include correcting an error within the PDS or amending the PDS to comply with updated legal and regulatory requirements. If We need to update this PDS, We will provide You with a new PDS or Supplementary PDS (SPDS).

Duty of Disclosure

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before You enter into this contract of insurance, You have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

The duty applies until We first agree to insure You, and where relevant, until We agree to any subsequent variation, extension, reinstatement or renewal (as applicable).

A consumer insurance contract

This policy is a 'consumer insurance contract' as it is, wholly or predominantly, for personal, domestic or household purposes.

Answering Our questions

In all cases, if We ask You questions that are relevant to Our decision to insure You and on what terms, You have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation when answering the questions.

It is important that You understand You are answering Our questions in this way for Yourself and anyone else that You want to be covered by the contract.

Variations, extensions and reinstatements

For variations, extensions and reinstatements, You have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation when answering the questions.

Renewal

Where We offer renewal, We may, in addition to or instead of asking specific questions, give You a copy of anything You have previously told Us and ask You to tell Us if it has changed. If We do this, You must tell Us about any change or tell Us that there is no change.

If You do not tell Us about a change to something You have previously told Us, You will be taken to have told Us that there is no change.

What You do not need to tell Us

You do not need to tell Us anything that:

- reduces the risk We insure You for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- We know or should know as an insurer; or
- We waive Your duty to tell Us about.

If You do not tell Us something

If You do not tell Us anything You are required to tell Us, We may cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim, or both.

If Your failure to tell Us is fraudulent, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

The Meaning of Certain Words and Interpretation

Throughout the PDS certain words begin with capital letters. These words have special meanings and are included in the section "Definitions" on page 24. Please refer there for their meaning.

Any reference to legislation or a legislative instrument in this document also refers to that legislation or legislative instrument as may be amended from time to time and any replacement, successor or functionally similar or delegated legislation or legislative instrument of the Commonwealth of Australia (or of the applicable State or Territory of the Commonwealth of Australia in which the Insured Location is located).

What makes up Your Qikio Contents Insurance Policy

When We accept Your application for insurance cover, or Your existing Qikio Contents Insurance Policy is renewed, We enter into an insurance contract with You. Your insurance contract is made up of the following documents collectively known as Your Policy:

- this PDS;
- Your current Certificate of Insurance (issued to You if We accept Your application for insurance); and
- any SPDS that may be issued by Us from time to time.

Electronic Communications

We will send Your Policy documents and related notices to You electronically. This includes email and other types of electronic communications. You provided consent to receive electronic communications when You applied for Your Policy. Each electronic communication will be deemed to be received by You at the time it leaves Our information system.

Key Benefits and Risks

This PDS provides a number of benefits (including additional benefits) which are:

- subject to the relevant Excess, limits, sub-limits and the relevant Sum Insured;
- only payable following a Defined Event for Contents or an Incident for Personal Liability, both of which must occur during the Policy Period (except for Contents in Transit to the Insured Location); and
- subject to terms, conditions and exclusions.

It is important that You read the Policy carefully and that You understand the extent of the cover.

If a Contents claim is paid as a Total Loss during a Policy Period, then We will not reinstate the Sum Insured and the cover for Your Contents will have ended for that Policy Period.

Contents Cover

Benefits:

- We cover loss or damage to Your Contents from the following Defined Events: an animal becomes accidentally trapped, Storm, Storm Surge, lightning, fire, Flood, Theft, attempted Theft or burglary, earthquake, riot and civil commotion, tsunamis, Vandalism or Malicious Damage, explosion, escape of liquid and impact from certain sources.
- The most We will pay for loss or damage to Your Contents is the Contents Sum Insured shown on Your Certificate of Insurance.

Risks:

- We do not cover all types of loss or damage: We only cover You for Defined Events. For example, We do not cover You for items that are lost or misplaced that are not as a result of a Defined Event.
- Limits and exclusions may apply to some types of loss or damage or to some items.

Personal Liability Cover

Benefits:

- We cover Your Personal Liability to others for Bodily and Mental Injury and Property Damage.
- The most We will pay for all claims arising from one Incident for Personal Liability covered by this PDS is Your Personal Liability Sum Insured of $20 million, which includes any covered legal costs.

Risks:

- We do not cover all types of loss or damage. For example, We will not pay for Personal Liability arising from any Business activity or Personal Liability arising from the use or towing of any vehicle.

Summary of Benefits Table

The Summary of Benefits Table summarises the maximum amounts payable and should be read as a summary only. When You purchase the Policy, You choose your Excess and the Contents Sum Insured that are recorded in Your Certificate of Insurance. A detailed description of the cover is set out in the What We Cover section in this PDS and in Your Certificate of Insurance.

b. Additions and Alterations following a Defined Event if you are the owner of the Insured Location	Up to 10% of the Contents Sum Insured.	The Excess or Unoccupied Excess applies to this benefit.
c. Alternative Accommodation following a paid Defined Event claim	Up to 10% of the Contents Sum Insured for up to 12 months	No Excess applies
d. Loss or damage to Contents in transit to the Insured Location caused by certain events	This benefit is included within and not in addition to Your Contents Sum Insured and does not increase the amount of Your Contents Sum Insured or the maximum payable for any insured item.	The Excess applies to this benefit.
e. Emergency repairs at the Insured Location to protect Contents from a Defined Event	Up to $1,000	No Excess applies
f. Emergency preventative measures to protect Contents from Storm, Flood or bushfire	Up to $1,000	No Excess applies
g. Food, medicine and wine spoilage at the Insured Location due to changes in temperature caused by certain events	Up to $1,000	No Excess applies

h. Loss, damage or destruction by a Defined Event of Personal Effects temporarily removed from the Insured Location	$2,000 per item and $5,000 per claim	The Excess applies to this benefit
B. Personal Liability Cover for Personal Liability for You or a Family Member for an Incident that occurs during the Policy Period	$20,000,000	No Excess applies
Personal Liability – Additional Benefit Credit card liability when a credit card, bank card or debit card issued to You or a Family Member is physically stolen	Up to $1,000 for Personal Liability You or a Family Member incur from the unauthorized use of a stolen credit card	No Excess applies

Excesses, Underinsurance, Policy Limits, and Premium

The examples below outline some scenarios of how the Excess, underinsurance and Policy limits may be applied in particular claims. These examples are for illustrative purposes only.

Excesses

The Excess only applies to Contents. No Excess is applicable for Personal Liability.

For each particular Contents benefit, item, loss or claim insured by the Policy an Excess may apply. An Excess is the amount that is deducted from any Contents claim before We pay Your claim. Please refer to the Summary of Benefits Table on page 8.

You select Your Excess for Contents from a range of alternatives offered at the time of purchase of Your Policy. In some cases the value of the claim may be less than the Excess You have selected, and in that case You will not receive a payment.

If at the time of the Defined Event covered by Your Policy, the Insured Location has been Unoccupied for more than 60 continuous days, the Unoccupied Excess will apply instead of the Excess. The Unoccupied Excess is calculated as 10% of the Contents Sum Insured.

Example:

Contents Sum Insured	$50,000
Excess selected by You	$1,500

Claim	Your mobile phone is stolen from Your Insured Location and the cost to replace it is $1,200.
How We settle the claim	In this case the cost to replace the item ($1,200) is less than the amount of the Excess ($1,500) and We will not pay anything.

Underinsurance

It's important that You choose the right Sum Insured to reflect the total value of Your Contents because, if You underinsure, it could be financially devastating. For example, if Your Contents were damaged significantly in a fire, and Your Sum Insured was not enough to fully replace Your Contents, You would have to pay the shortfall. Some Contents have certain item limits meaning that if You make a claim as a result of a Defined Event, the maximum We will pay is the amount specified for that item. See the table on page 8 for the maximum amount payable for certain Contents.

Example:

Contents Sum Insured	$50,000
Excess selected by You	$1,000
Claim	A fire destroys all Contents at the Insured Location causing a Contents claim of $60,000. The Sum Insured of $50,000 is insufficient to replace the destroyed Contents.
How We settle the claim	We will pay to replace the Contents after applying the Contents Sum Insured and the Excess: $50,000 Sum Insured - $1,000 Excess = $49,000 claim payment. As this is a claim for a Total Loss, we will not reinstate the Contents Sum Insured and the cover for Your Contents will have ended for that Policy Period.

Policy Limits

In some cases the maximum amount We are liable to pay for a particular Defined Event, Incident, benefit, item, loss or claim within a Policy benefit may be limited by the relevant Sum Insured, a sub-limit or otherwise. You should refer to the Summary of Benefits Table, the PDS and Your Certificate of Insurance to understand the limits that are applicable.

Example:

Contents Sum Insured	$50,000
Excess selected by You	$500
Claim	Thieves break the door to your holiday accommodation while you are on a 2 week vacation and steal a ring valued at $2,200.
How We settle the claim	This Theft is covered by the Contents additional benefit (h) "loss damage or destruction by a Defined Event or Theft of Personal Effects temporarily removed from the Insured Location". The maximum We will pay under this benefit is $2,000 per item.

	We will pay to replace the ring after applying the item limit and the Excess: $2,000 item limit - $500 Excess = $1,500 claim payment.

Premium (including payment by instalments)

The cost of the Policy for the Policy Period is the Premium as shown in Your Certificate of Insurance. Your Premium includes applicable government taxes and charges including GST, stamp duty and, in New South Wales, the Emergency Services Levy (ESL). We may cancel the Policy if You have failed to pay the total Premium due. See the 'Cancelling Your Policy' section in this PDS for more details.

The amount of Your Premium:

- is determined by a number of factors which reflect the risk to Us including the location of the Insured Location, the Contents Sum Insured, the Personal Liability Sum Insured, Your claims history, the security at the Insured Location, the age of the Insured Location and the Excess You selected;
- may be increased or decreased during the Policy Period when changes are requested by You to Your Policy (such as a change in the Contents Sum Insured); and
- may be changed by Us when You renew Your Policy by applying an inflation factor (due to changes in the Consumer Price Index and related considerations) to the Contents Sum Insured and We will calculate the renewal Premium based on this revised Contents Sum Insured.

When You purchase the Policy, You can choose to pay Your Premium by paying the entire Premium for the Policy Period or by paying in twelve (12) equal monthly instalments. In either case, Your Premium is paid in advance and We will tell You the amount of Your Premium (and the Premium instalments, if applicable) and how it can be paid when We accept Your application for insurance.

If You decide to pay Your Premium by twelve (12) equal monthly instalments:

- the first instalment is the first day of Your Policy Period;
- there is no additional fee for paying in instalments;
- payment must be made by way of direct debit via a credit card;
- We may refuse to pay a claim (in whole or in part) if an instalment remains unpaid for at least 14 days after the instalment was due; and
- We may cancel Your Policy if You do not pay Your instalments in circumstances detailed in the 'Cancelling Your Policy' section of this PDS.

Cooling Off Period

If You change Your mind and decide You no longer need this insurance Policy, You have 14 days after the start of the Policy Period (including renewals) to request to cancel Your Policy and receive a full refund. If the request is made to Us within those 14 days, We will cancel the Policy, provided You (or any insured under the Policy) have not exercised a right or power under the terms of the Policy in that period (e.g. a claim has been made or benefit paid).

We will provide a full refund of Premium (or if You are paying by instalment, Your first Premium instalment payment), less charges or taxes which We are unable to recover. Even after the cooling off period ends You still have cancellation rights (see 'Cancelling Your Policy' directly below).

You can contact Us to exercise Your rights within the cooling off period on 1800 952 357 or Qikioservice@chubb.com.

Cancelling Your Policy

This Policy may be cancelled by You at any time by giving Us notice in writing of the future date the cancellation is to take effect. There are circumstances in which We may cancel this Policy, including non-payment of Your Policy Premium (including non-payment of a Premium instalment if you are paying by instalments), non-disclosure of information reasonably requested by Us, and fraud. Any Policy cancellation will be in accordance with the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). If We do cancel Your Policy, We will provide You with specific details as to why Your Policy is being cancelled. Should We or You cancel Your Policy, We shall retain a pro -rata proportion of the Premium for the time the Policy has been in force.

If You are paying Your Premium via equal monthly instalments and We have not received an instalment payment, We will send You a notice in writing regarding Your non-payment at least 14 calendar days before any cancellation by Us for non-payment. If after sending this first notice We do not receive the instalment payment, then We will send You a second notice in writing before cancellation, informing You that Your Policy is being cancelled for non-payment.

Refund

In the event of cancellation by You or by Us, We will refund any Premium paid based on the effective date of cancellation or within fifteen (15) business days (Monday to Friday, excluding public holidays). Any returned Premium will be calculated on a pro-rata basis relating to the time the Policy was in place and will depend upon any claims made by You. However, We will not refund any Premium in the event We have paid a claim for the relevant Sum Insured provided under any section(s) of this Policy. If You are paying Your Premium in monthly instalments, You will be required to pay the entire Premium for the Policy Period in the event We pay a claim regardless of whether You subsequently cancel Your Policy.

Abandoning Contents

You cannot require Us or a third party to take possession of or responsibility for any Contents You have abandoned following a claim unless We agree to You doing so. Our consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

Admission of liability

You must not make any admission of liability or any payments for any Personal Liability unless We agree or incur any expense other than is necessary to protect persons or property.

Appeals

If You or a Family Member do not appeal a judgment for covered Personal Liability, We reserve the right to instruct legal counsel to make such an appeal, where it is appropriate in the circumstances, subject to Us keeping You apprised of the status of proceedings, informed of material developments and consulted where appropriate. We will then become responsible for all expenses, costs and interest arising out of the appeal. However, the Personal Liability Sum Insured will not be increased.

Applicable law

Any dispute arising under the Policy or concerning its formation shall be governed by the laws of the appropriate State or Territory of the Commonwealth of Australia. Each party agrees to submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction within the said State or Territory and to comply with the requirements necessary to give such court jurisdiction. For Personal Liability claims that occur in New Zealand, the relevant laws of New Zealand will apply in relation to an Incident.

Appraisals

If You or We fail to agree on the amount of loss, You and We may agree on the selection of an independent appraiser in order to reach a mutual agreement. You and We will share the expenses incurred equally and every effort will be made to reach an agreement within a reasonable time. However, We do not waive Our rights under this Policy by agreeing to an appraisal.

Application of cover

Cover applies separately to each insured person under this Policy. However, this provision does not increase the amount of cover per claim for any one Defined Event or Incident.

No change in, modification of, or assignment of interest under this Policy shall be effective except when made by written endorsement to such Policy which is issued by Us.

Monetary or economic loss

Renewals

We may offer to renew this Policy for a further period of insurance. If We do so, We may adjust the Contents Sum Insured by applying an inflation factor (due to changes in the Consumer Price Index and other considerations). A renewal of the Policy may include a revised Premium and revised Policy provisions in effect at the date of renewal. We will do this by sending You a renewal notice containing the bill for the revised Premium along with any changes in the Policy provisions or amounts of cover, a comparison between the previous year's premium and the renewal year's premium, and an explanation as to how the Premium is calculated.

You may accept Our offer by paying the required Premium as directed in the renewal notice.

If We are unable or unwilling to offer a renewal Policy We will advise You in writing no less than 14 days prior to Your renewal date.

- if We require more information from You, We will inform You within ten (10) business days;
- if We need to appoint an external assessor, or other expert, We will inform You;
- as soon as We have all the information required, We will confirm in writing to You whether the claim is covered under the Policy; and

If the claim is accepted, We will then determine what should be paid, repaired or replaced in accordance with the Policy and contact You to confirm and discuss how We will progress the settlement of the claim. When the claim is paid or otherwise settled, We will detail in writing the final claim settlement and confirm that the claim will be closed.
